0.1	ApMoSys	HR	25-Jan-2023	Sangeeta Padhy

1. Applicability

This policy is applicable to all the employees of ApMoSys who are on the rolls of the company.

2. Guidelines

Travel Approval

- a) Travel programs should be prepared by the employee and approved by the respective Department head at least 7 days in advance. The approved plan needs to be shared with Admin team for booking the travel and refer Annexure 1 for details.
- b) Prior approval of the departmental head is required for extension of business travel or combining business travel with personal trip. In case of combining business and personal travel, the cost of personal trip (differential due to personal reason) would be recovered from the employee.
- c) Please note that no expenses with respect to your respective allotted base location will be reimbursed by the organization for travel and stay purposes. Employees will have to plan for it themselves for their respective base location.
- d) Any Travel Allowance claimed for base locations needs to be pre-approved by Admin Department and Departmental Head and will be reimbursed as per actuals on submission bills / or pre-approved rates.

Cancellation and Re-Booking

- a) While travelling, if the travelers miss their flights/train/bus resulting in the cancellation and re-booking of travel plans, then such additional expenses would be recovered from the employee unless he/she submits reasons for missing the flight/train/bus by the employee in writing and only on approval of the Departmental Head
- b) If the cancellation and re-booking for the employee needs to be done because of personal reasons, the cost would be borne by the employee.

Travel Advance (Only for Intercity Travel)

- a) All employees are eligible to claim travel advance for meeting the expenses for domestic travel. This can be claimed from the Accounts department, only when the travel plan is approved and on approval of the Accounts.
- b) Travel advance should not exceed expected travel expenditure
- c) No second travel advance would be payable to any employee unless accounts for the previous travel has been cleared / settled.

Lodging / Boarding

- a) Admin team will book guest house or hotels as per limits applicable stated in Annexure 1. In cities where the company has a guest house facility, employees are expected to stay in the company guesthouse. In case of unavailability of the guest house and hotel rooms as communicated by the admin team, employee can stay in a hotel or stay with his/her relatives or friends. Limits for the lodging / boarding have been provided in the annexure.

Adherence

The following points need to be adhered to:

- a) Original Receipts: Original Receipts are mandatory for expenditures of all kinds.
- b) Timelines: Expense Reimbursement Report needs to be submitted by the 1st week of a month. Expense reimbursement claims should always contain a description outlining the purpose of trip or purpose of the expense incurred.
- c) Expense Reimbursement Claim older than 60 days from the day of completion of the business travel would not be processed.
- d) If any expense is made through Personal/Company Credit Card, payment of Credit card dues is the responsibility of the employee and company will not bear any fees or late charges. (Except annual fee in case of Company Credit Card)

Responsibility

All Employees are accountable for ensuring compliance with this policy when approving business travel and expenses.

All employees are responsible for reading, understanding and complying with this policy and their applicable Addendum.

Accounts Team may audit expense reports for compliance to company policies. Non-compliant transactions are subject to short pay, additional review, and may require department head approval.

Violation of this policy or its appendices may result in loss of travel privileges, disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment and/or non-reimbursement of expenses, to the extent permitted by law.

Activities which are fraudulent, or not in compliance with the company policies are subject to individual liability and local and civil laws. Consequences apply to direct offenders as well as those who collude or through negligence fail to detect information they knew or should have known

Management reserves the right to change this policy at any given point of time.
